

You can also travel very cost-effectively with Eurolines Bus Company, which offers routes to Regensburg from any European country. Some routes may not travel as far as Regensburg, however. Should you be required to disembark at Munich Station, you will then need to catch a train to Regensburg.