Flying to Frankfurt airport (approx. 320 km from Regensburg):

The train station is located directly below the terminal building, where you can purchase a ticket directly from the automated machine. You will need to travel with an ICE train. The journey lasts approximately 4 hours and costs between 70 and 180 euros. You must purchase your ticket before you board the train.

If you already know your exact flight details and arrival times in advance, then you can save money by purchasing your train tickets in advance.

For further information on bus/train times or how to plan your journey please see:

http://www.bahn.de/p/view/index.shtml

Once you have arrived at Regensburg Central Station, you can get to the University by taking a bus from the stop on Albertstraße. You can take either of the line 6 buses or the lines 11, C1 or C6 bus. See Regensburg's transport association website for more information.

Alternatively, you can travel from Frankfurt airport to Regensburg using car-sharing services. See www.mitfahrgelegenheit.de to organise in advance.